—Old wagon taken in exchange for new one at D. M. Martin's.
—Kneale & Zachman have fresh Columbia river salmon in bulk.
—Rev. M. R. Smith will preach at the Catholic house next Sunday at 3 p. m.—The Colored Baptists of this city will give a festival on this Friday night, August 24th.—Kelly & Donovan, of New Point, have a full stock of salt paper, and are selling at low prices.—Tom Kizer is now running the engine at the sawing factory, and a first-class engine he is.—Attend the camp meeting at the grove one mile north of Nye's Grove, this Friday, August 24th.—Miss Mattie Benson returned Friday, from St. Joseph, where she has been taking a course in stenography.—The latest designs and patterns in wall paper can be found at J. C. Phillips' store. All new and the lowest prices.—A large number of Oregon people attended the Matfield fair this week, and were very well pleased with everything.—Mrs. Deane and family left on Friday, for St. Joseph, where they will reside for a short time.—Mrs. Mary Green, first Adm. east of the lumber yard, will be prepared to en-tain boarders during work week.—You don't buy a wagon every day, therefore buy a good one, and get it at
H. C. Schmidt's. He keeps the best.—Presiding Elder J. J. Bentley, of the Methodist conference, has been nominated for the position of Moderator of this district.—You will find that splendid pure cream ice cream, made by Mrs. D. E.
Bentley on this every day and evening at the depot.—On our daily paper will be found a very interesting article on school planning, which our farmers at this time will find very interesting.—Mrs. Jones was called to Ellwood, Kansas, last Tuesday, by telegram, announcing the serious illness of her son John, who has many friends here.—A fine $100 pump has been bought for the school, and will be ready for use very soon.—A mark from the engine set fire to the roof of Holt's house, which has been burned down, and the loss is estimated at $100.—Just received and opened up for sale an assortment of ladies' dresses, by Jesse C. Phil, at the lowest prices ever offered in Northwest Missouri.—J. P. Rhodes, of Fort Union, and H.
T. Kizer, of this city, were perfecting a land transaction. They left the town through the section travelers, by their being very badly surprised.—A. A. Wagner, the apple grower, man, stayed last night at the depot, and right and expects to return home Friday and ship his fruit here and expect to have all things ready for business about the first of September.—The king of all wagons has today made since 1845, 49 years and today stands here and shoulders above all competitors which has been in the business since 1845. The wagon was sold and warranted by D. M. Martin.—Mrs. Emma Dobson is the guest of relatives in St. Louis, where she will remain for a short time, and where she will meet her daughter, Mrs. L. W.
Kiefer, of Kiefer, Idaho.—The government report, which places the condition of the corn crop at 62.1 points, represents a yield of 1,600, 600,000 bushels. If this prediction holds good, the crop will be the smallest of recent years. Those only of 1871, 1877, and 1893 being smaller.—Excursion train to Matfield Fair, Thursday and Friday. One and one-half cents for round trip. Train will leave Forest City at 9:30 a. m., arriving at Matfield at 10:30 a. m. Returning will leave Matfield at 6 p. m. in the evening, arriving at Forest City at 7:30 p. m.—There is more than a fighting chance for a Republican to go to congress from this district. "Hilly" Gilson, the Democratic candidate, is a good fellow, but he is no reason why we shouldn't beat him if we can. Let's go fellows! Fall outside the best work.—Robert Moorehead, who was arrested on the charge of striking the blow that caused the death of Mr. Schaffer, at Arago, Neb., on the 4th of July, has been pronounced guilty of the crime, and is now in the penitentiary for the sum of $1000 on the charge of murder in the second degree.—Prof. Merica has made application for admission to the bar in Holt county court, that court being held first in this circuit, and he is being desirous of entering into practice immediately. Prof.
Merica is a graduate of a law school, and has been reading for some time back, and we believe will make his mark as an attorney. The Republican expects to give him the best of his future success. —Marilyn Republican.—And teasled! How often and how forcibly have we longed for untaxed teasles. How we have dreamed of the day when we should be able to occupy the foreground, and where man could at last find perfect rest.—The cattle tariff bill has been passed by the senate, and will be signed by the president. This bill will be a great benefit to the cattle raisers of this country, and will be a great help to the cattle raisers of this country.—And still the best of evidence seems to accumulate that Holt county will have some corn to spare for the market. In addition to the fine specimens brought to the office by Jacob Merica and Will Varvel, now comes Uncle Herman Watson who shows us a specimen from his field of thirty acres, whose stalk measures fourteen feet long and nine feet to the ear which is a large one and well matured. He thinks it will measure out 35 bushels to the acre.—D. Ward King's party assembled at Matfield and nominated the following county ticket. For Representative, J.
C. Croson; for Judge, M. J. Jones; for county clerk, Mrs. Isabella Downey; for assessor, Frank Loucks; for collector, Thomas Metcalf; for coroner, L. P. Senter; for sheriff, T. J. Keown; for treasurer, M. B.
Smith; for probate judge, Joseph Bays; for prosecuting attorney, J. M. Dunning; for judge of the court, M. J. Jones; for judge of the district, James E. Ward.—The damage to the corn crop in parts of Kansas and Nebraska is so great that the St. Joseph and Grand Island railroads have issued orders for the abandonment of over a dozen stations on their lines. The officers of the road say the sections where the stations were closed depended almost entirely on the corn crop, and now that it is a failure they are leaving in great numbers and there is absolutely no business for the railroads.—Let's have waterworks.
—For all kinds of salt from Reynolds & Zachman.—Excursion train to Matfield Fair Thursday and Friday.—Mrs. Jones is visiting with her mother at Savannah, Mo.—Two sets of newly new work harness for sale by H. C. Schmidt.—Albert Roecker and wife have returned from their Colorado trip.—Let me show you a new, strong wagon. Must be, D. M. Martin's.—If you want a good cigar or cigar box, go to Kelly & Donovan, New Point.
—Johnson's ladies' fine foot wear it fits; cheap for the dollar of our two-dollar shoes.—For a good comfortable house with barn, etc., all new, to rent, apply to William Kaucher.—If you want a prescription or family receipt filled accurately, go to Kelly & Donovan, New Point.—M. J. Moore and wife are attending the national meeting of the railway postal clerks at Cincinnati.—The Canada thistle is spreading quite rapidly on the farm of J. A. Adams and others in Holt county.—Mrs. Mary Green, first Adm. east of
tain boarders during work week.—You don't buy a wagon every day,
therefore buy a good one, and get it at
